

Day 13 – SQL Connectors

I learned about SQL connectors in Power BI and how to establish a direct connection between Power BI and a SQL database. This allowed me to import or query live data, perform transformations, and build dynamic reports that stay up to date with database changes.