

Day 11 – Model View & Table Connections

I learned how to work with Model View in Power BI to visualize relationships between tables. I practiced creating table connections and using a bridge table to handle many-to-many relationships, ensuring accurate data modeling and reporting.