

Day 12 – Pizza Hub Sales Analysis Test

I attended a practical test where I was tasked with creating a two-page Pizza Hub Sales Analysis Dashboard. This included connecting to the dataset, building key visuals such as sales trends, top-selling items, customer segmentation, and using slicers and filters for interactivity. The exercise helped me put together all the concepts I learned earlier — from data modeling to dashboard design — in a real-world scenario.